What is Direct Debit?

A Direct Debit lets your bank or building society know that Cambridge City Council can collect money from your account on a set date.

Direct Debit is the most simple and convenient way to pay regular, recurring bills. It means you no longer have to worry about missed payments, or manually making each payment throughout the month, freeing up your time.

We will tell you how much we will collect in advance, usually with at least ten working days' notice. If we need to change the amount to be collected from your bank account then we must inform you first. If the payment date falls on a weekend or bank holiday, the money is collected on the next working day.

If there's a mistake, such as collecting the wrong amount, you can ask your bank or building society for a refund under the Direct Debit Guarantee. You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by contacting your bank or via your mobile or online banking.
